

Shanghai Survey of Couples' Relationship During COVID

A study by the Shanghai Municipal People's Government about better understanding how we can support our community during the pandemic and afterwards.

The Shanghai Census Bureau is conducting the Survey of Couples' Relationship During COVID on behalf of the Shanghai Municipal People's Government (SMPG). We would like to understand the status quo and plan for potential mental aid, financial aid, and other types of services. Eventually we would like to mitigate the bad effects brought by this round of COVID strike and improve the happiness of our citizens.

Any information you provide will be shared among a limited number of Census Bureau and the University of Chicago relevant staff only for work-related purposes under the Personal Information Protection Law and Data Security Law.

START HERE

Respond online today at: <https://respond.shanghai.census.gov/relationships>

OR complete this form and mail it back as soon as possible.

The SMPG would like to thank you for your patience weathering this pandemic with everyone, and for helping out to fill out this survey. Please complete this survey to the best of your ability. There are 26 questions in total and most of them are choices questions so it should be easy to complete.

How long will the survey take? - It takes about 5-20 minutes to complete.

Is my data safe? Yes! First of all, this survey does not require you to provide sensitive information that led anyone to identify you (for example, detailed address, phone number, national ID, etc). Secondly, your response is anonymous and the data can solely be accessed by the SMPG-COVID survey project team during the analysis process.

For help or questions about completing this form, please call 1-425-503-6900. The telephone call is free. For Telephone Device for the Deaf (TDD) assistance, please call 1-425-503-6901. The telephone call is free.
